

Language Learning Plan Worksheet

Proficiency Goal

To work on reaching Level ____ of the Canadian Language Benchmarks in Listening and Speaking. (Go to CLB website for proficiency level checklists if you choose to use CLB).

Timeframe

I will have ____ months to complete this plan.

I will have _____ hours per week to spend on language learning.

Major communication needs

During this timeframe, my major communication needs are:

(Ex. Take a taxi to the shopping mall, pay my electric bill, appropriately greet my neighbors, explain why I am living in this country, describe my family, etc.)

How I will spend my time to reach this goal

List how many hours per week, or how many times per week, you will spend on each of the following (ex. 2 hour sessions, 3 times per week):

1. Formal learning time with a language helper
2. Formal learning time with a tutor or in language school
3. Practicing what I am learning on a language route
4. Informal conversation time with a local friend or conversation partner
5. Personal study time
6. Time making lesson plans, evaluating, and further planning my learning

Assessment

I will have the following assessments during this timeframe:

Feel free to use these assessments, or list other ideas you have. You do not have to have weekly assessments if you don't want to—those are just suggestions.

1. Role-play quizzes (Simulated Oral Proficiency Exercise or something similar): 1 per week
2. Oral vocabulary quizzes: 1 per week
3. Informal time to evaluate Canadian Language Benchmark progress: Once per month
4. Other: _____
